

Chilean steel plant user outdoor unit 150kW

After 74 years as a driving economic force, Huachipato, Chile's largest steel plant, has shut down. The closure impacts thousands of workers and prompts BioBío's region to seek a new ...

Chile's largest steel mill has said it will shut down in the face of competition from cheap Chinese imports, in a blow to the country's government, which had imposed tariffs on China earlier...

Chile's largest steel mill has said it will shut down in the face of ...

In the early hours of Monday, September 16, 2024, Huachipato, Chile's largest steelmaker, extinguished its furnace after 74 years of operation. The company's closure marks the ...

The closure of Huachipato will affect 1,090 small and medium-sized enterprises and reduce revenues in the municipality of Talcahuano, where the plant is located, according to a study ...

Despite specializing in mining products and requesting the imposition of additional tariffs on Chinese steel, accumulated losses of US$700 million since 2019 made the situation untenable. ...

Chile's largest steel plant announced on Wednesday that it had suspended operations because it could not sustain itself financially, despite new tariffs on Chinese steel meant to protect...

The Huachipato Steel Plant is located in the Talcahuano region, about 500 kilometers south of Santiago, Chile. It has been a leader in the Chilean steel industry since 1950.

It" after 74 years the blast furnace at Chile's biggest steelmaker will be turned off on Monday, snuffed out by competition from China with the loss of thousands of jobs.

Chilean steel plant user outdoor unit 150kW

Web: <https://klconsulting.co.za>

