What should a solar panel contract include?

Your solar panels' contract should estimate how much energy will be produced and what savings the client can expect. This section of the agreement should clearly outline how the system's performance will be monitored and what guarantees are given. Solar power has many benefits for businesses and commercial properties, such as Do solar projects need an EPC contract?

In our experience, most utility-scale solar projects use an EPC Contract. An operation and maintenance agreement: This is usually a medium- to long-term Operating and Maintenance Agreement (O&M Agreement) with an Operator. The term of the O&M Agreement will vary from project to project.

Who performs a solar electrical engineering review?

An engineering review will be performed by EPC Contractor's engineer and or engineering Subcontractor(s) to determine the feasibility of interconnecting the solar electric System to the Project Site's electrical system, and the final designs will be stamped and signed by a certified Professional Engineer.

What are the different types of solar panel agreements & proposals?

There are different types of solar panel agreements and proposals available. The one you use will depend on a few different factors. These factors include whether you lease or buy solar panels and whether the contract is for a home, business, or even a large development. A power purchase agreement or PPA is similar to a solar lease agreement.
