

Tirana, Nov. 22, 2024 -- Albania is set to move 2,600 businesses onto the open electricity market by January 1, 2025, in a sweeping energy liberalization push.

The European Union has cleared a EUR87.7 million support tranche under the Growth Plan for the Western Balkans Investment Framework. From this first financing phase, Albania will receive EUR32 million...

Electricity production realized for 2023, from KESH s.a occupies 58.3 % of all electricity production in our country and the electricity production from other producers is about 41.7 %.

The association publishes analyses, studies and research, publications and public presentations of customised policy papers on energy and related topics. It also elaborates regulatory policy ...

In December 2022, new electricity market rules governing trading procedures for short-term markets were approved. The day-ahead market in Albania was launched by the power exchange ALPEX on ...

In the wholesale market, the state-owned generation company, KESH, remains the dominant player, delivering energy via a bundled distributor (OSHEE) under regulated tariffs to captive consumers.

This analysis includes a comprehensive Albania energy market report and updated datasets. It is derived from the most recent key economic indicators, supply and demand factors, oil and gas ...

Contact Institute of Statistics - Tirana St. Vllazn Huta, Building 35, Entrance 1, Tirana, ZIP Code 1017
Email info@instat.gov.al Phone

With his expertise, the CEO of ALPEX emphasized the central role of efficient and transparent electricity markets as a foundation for integration, decarbonisation, and long-term ...

Albania plans to fully liberalize its electricity market by 2025, requiring businesses to purchase energy from private suppliers. This change is part of the government's efforts to open up ...

Web: <https://klconsulting.co.za>

